Arizona Jack's Conversion.

Among those who attended the prayer meeting at the Walnut street M. E. church last evening was "Arizona Jack." the frontier name of a well-known character, who lives is employed in a packing house. H was one of General Crook's favorite scouts in the Indian campaign through the southwest, where he earned the reputation of being one of the bravest and most skillful men in the service. His name is Isaac Kenzie, and he was born in New York. Kansas City has been his home for two years. Some months ago his landlady persuaded him to attend service at Dr. Mathew's church. He became interested and soon after was converted. Sine then he has taken up the work of extending the church's influence among his acquaintances and with great successs. He is a regular attendant on all services and he labors faithfully to bring others with him. Jack is a good talker, making his experiences, whether reminiscences of his life among the Indians fighters or descriptions of his church work, agreeable to listeners who gather about him. He recently had a letter from General Crook express-ing surprise at his conversion, but encouraging him to persi-t in doing good. He was, it is said, an awfully blasphemons man and generally fond of whisky, but has kept steadi ly and stratght since he first changed his ways—Kansas City Times.

Kabitual Constipation

Is a prolific source of misery and many ills, giving rise to headache dullness, fevers, nervousness, rest-lessness, billousness, indigestion, poisoning of the blood, etc. The bitter, nauseous liver medicines, pills salts and daughts, formerly used to relieve the sufferer, only aggravate the disease and sicken the stomach. All who are unlicted in that way All who are unicted in that way, know the importance of a remedy pleasant to the palate, harmless in its nature and truly beneficial in its action.
